SIR MARTIN'S FINE CHANGE THE DERBY

LONDON, May 24.—With the classic derby but two days ago American turfmen expressed the greatest confidence in day that the horses will go to Sir Martin, an importation from the United States, for Martin is quoted as one of the favorites and when the horses are lined at Epsom Downs it is thought the American horse will be far by the universal odds.

DICKERBY FOR JEFFRIES'S FIGHT ARENA

LOS ANGELES, May 24.—Negotiations between Promoter T. J. McCarty and the holders of the Jeffries arena property at Vernon are under way. McCarty already has agreed to pay the price named by the owners of the defunct fight club, providing the debts hanging over the huge structure be taken care of. McCarty's intention should be to have the arena used for boxing and other sports, and to have it built on the site of the old arena. The arena was built on the site of the old arena, and it is now being built on the site of the old arena.
